Women's March Paris will March on November 11th for Peace and Women's Rights

The event is in protest of Donald Trump's Paris visit to Paris on Armistice

Paris, France | 7 November 2018 - On Sunday, November 11th Women's March Paris will march in protest of US President Donald Trump's visit to the city. Trump is visiting Paris on the invitation of French President Emmanuel Macron to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the Armistice.

Women's March Paris is pleased to welcome the support of Women's March Global (Barcelona, Canada, Connecticut, London, Frankfurt, Madrid, Milan, Paris and Sydney), Collectif Ni Guerre Ni Etat de Guerre, Paris Against Trump, Stop the War Coalition, CODEPINK: Women for Peace, Progressive Action, Global Exchange-PAGE, Refuse Fascism, and Stand Up To Trump as well as over 50 other global organizations who believe in peace and non-violence.

These groups will be marching in protest of Trump's visit to Paris on a day marking the end of war. "The aim is to highlight the violence that is being done to us on a large scale and to take action to create a more just and egalitarian society," says Bénédicte Gambirasio, director of Women's March-Paris.

The general public is being called upon to join the pacifist demonstration. The event also serves as a signal to the commitment of Women's March Global and their continued action against war and state violence, and for peace and justice. The call for demonstrations has been signed by more than 50 organizations working for peace, justice, and equality.
